

Overview of Treatment Demand and Treatment Provision in Ukraine

Oleksii Sukhovii

Head of the Center for the Organization of Psychiatric Care, Institute of Psychiatry, Forensic Psychiatric Examination and Drug Monitoring of the Ministry of Health of Ukraine

Outpatient psychiatric care for people with SUD

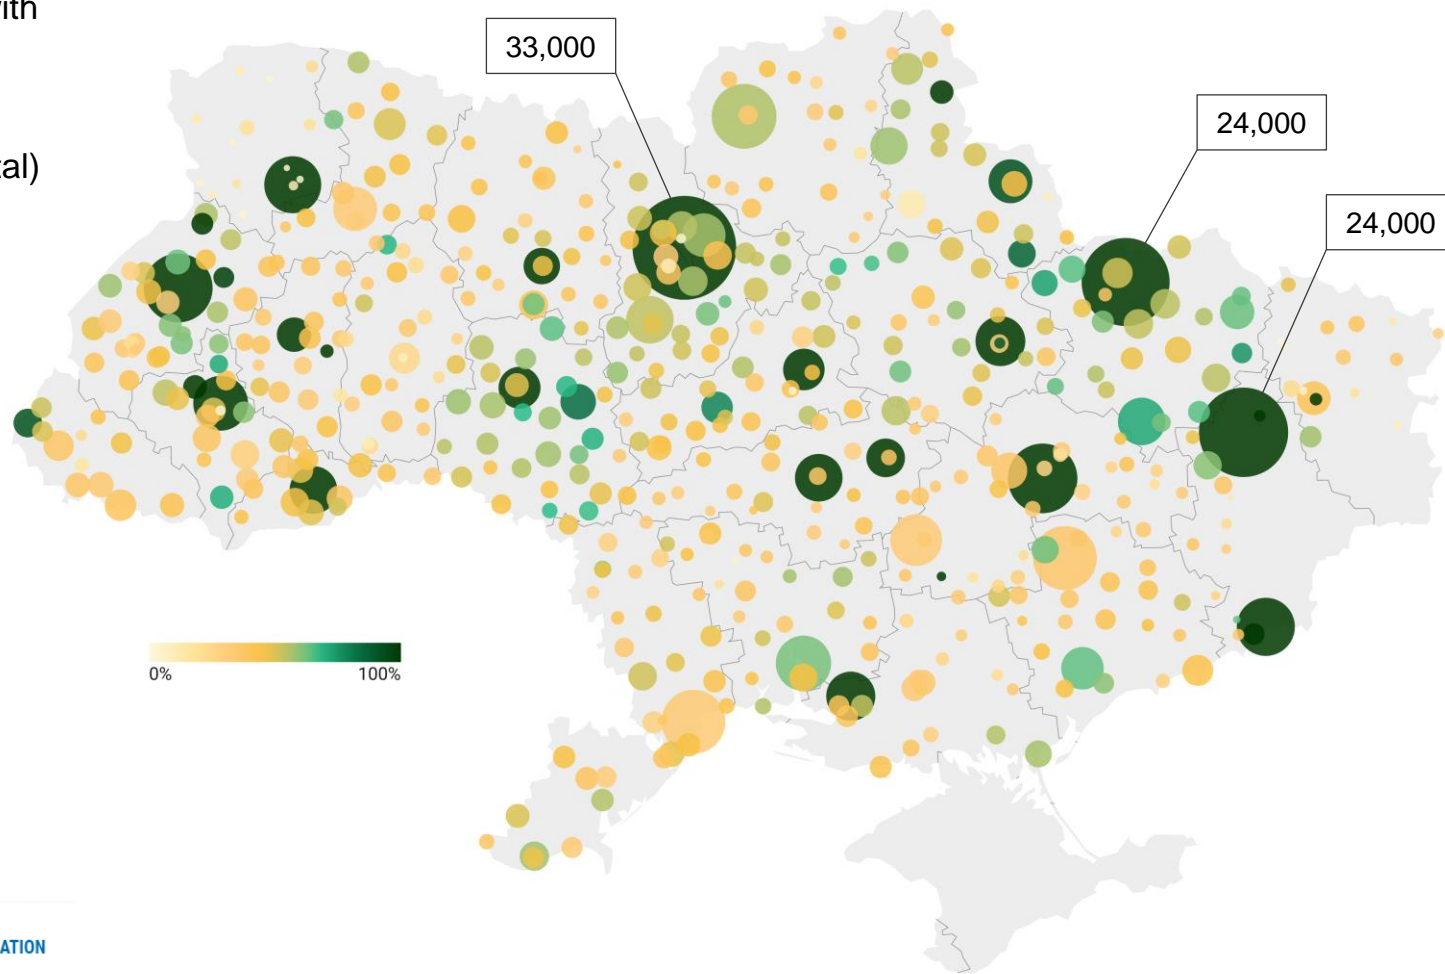

The bigger a circle, the more people with SUD (F10–F19) were provided with outpatient psychiatric care in 2020.

In shades of green – 161 public facilities with more than 50% of people with SUD (out of total, F00–F99, in service).

In shades of orange – 361 public facilities with less than 50% of people with SUD (out of total, F00–F99, in service).

1,750,000 people with diagnosis of mental disorder (F00–F99)

700,000 (40% of total) people with SUD (F10–F19)

Inpatient psychiatric care for people with SUD

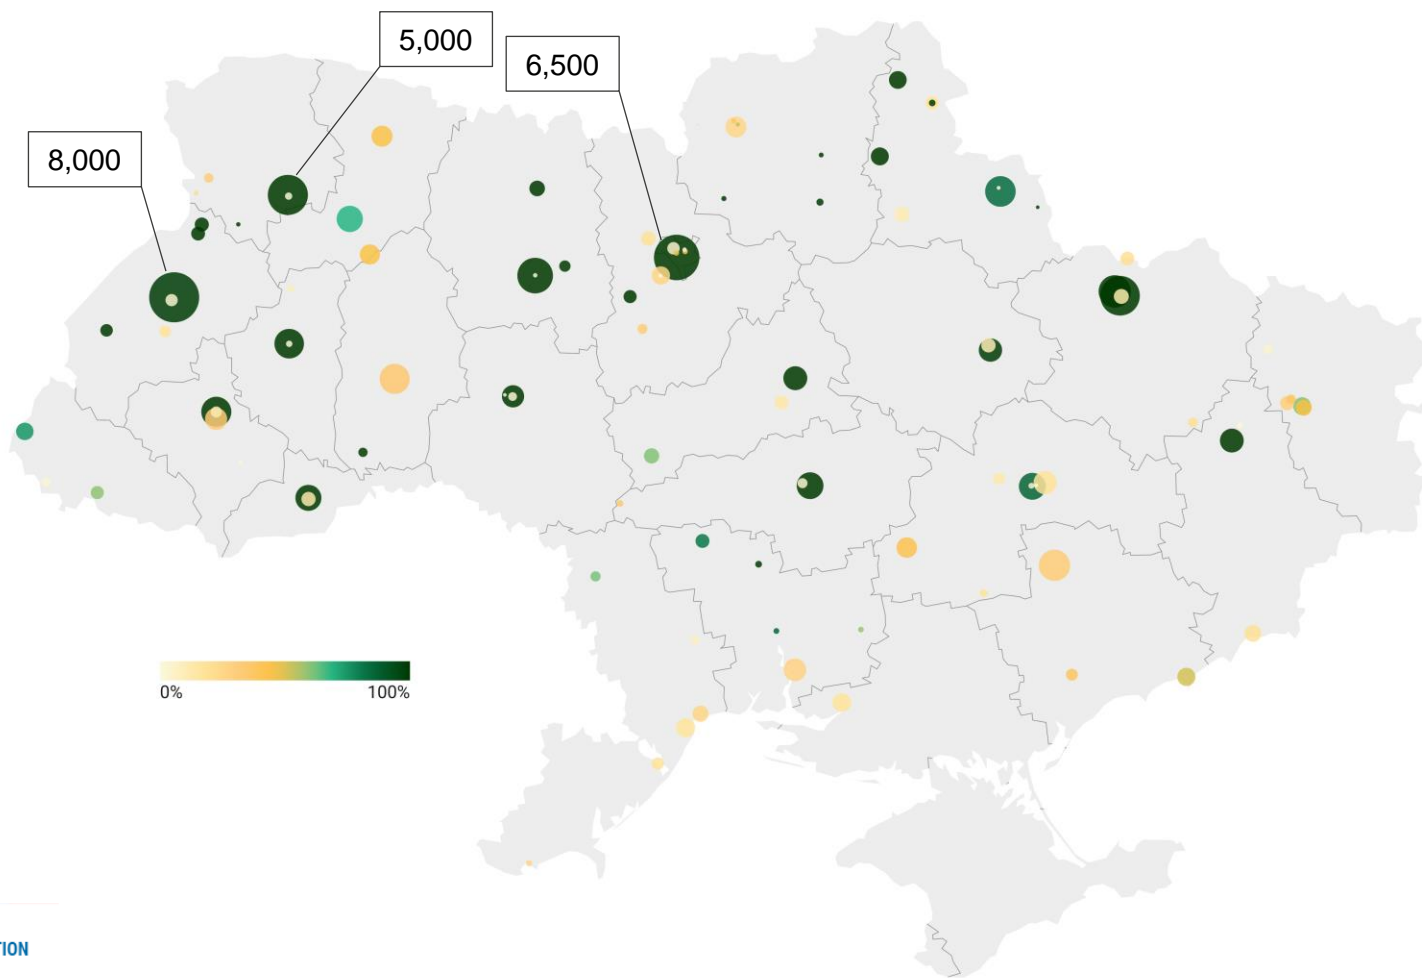

The bigger a circle, the more people with SUD (F10–F19) were provided with inpatient psychiatric care in 2020.

In shades of green – 43 public facilities with more than 50% of people with SUD (out of total, F00–F99, in service).

In shades of orange – 59 public facilities with less than 50% of people with SUD (out of total, F00–F99, in service).

230,000 people with diagnosis of mental disorder (F00–F99)

90,000 (38% of total) people with SUD (F10–F19)

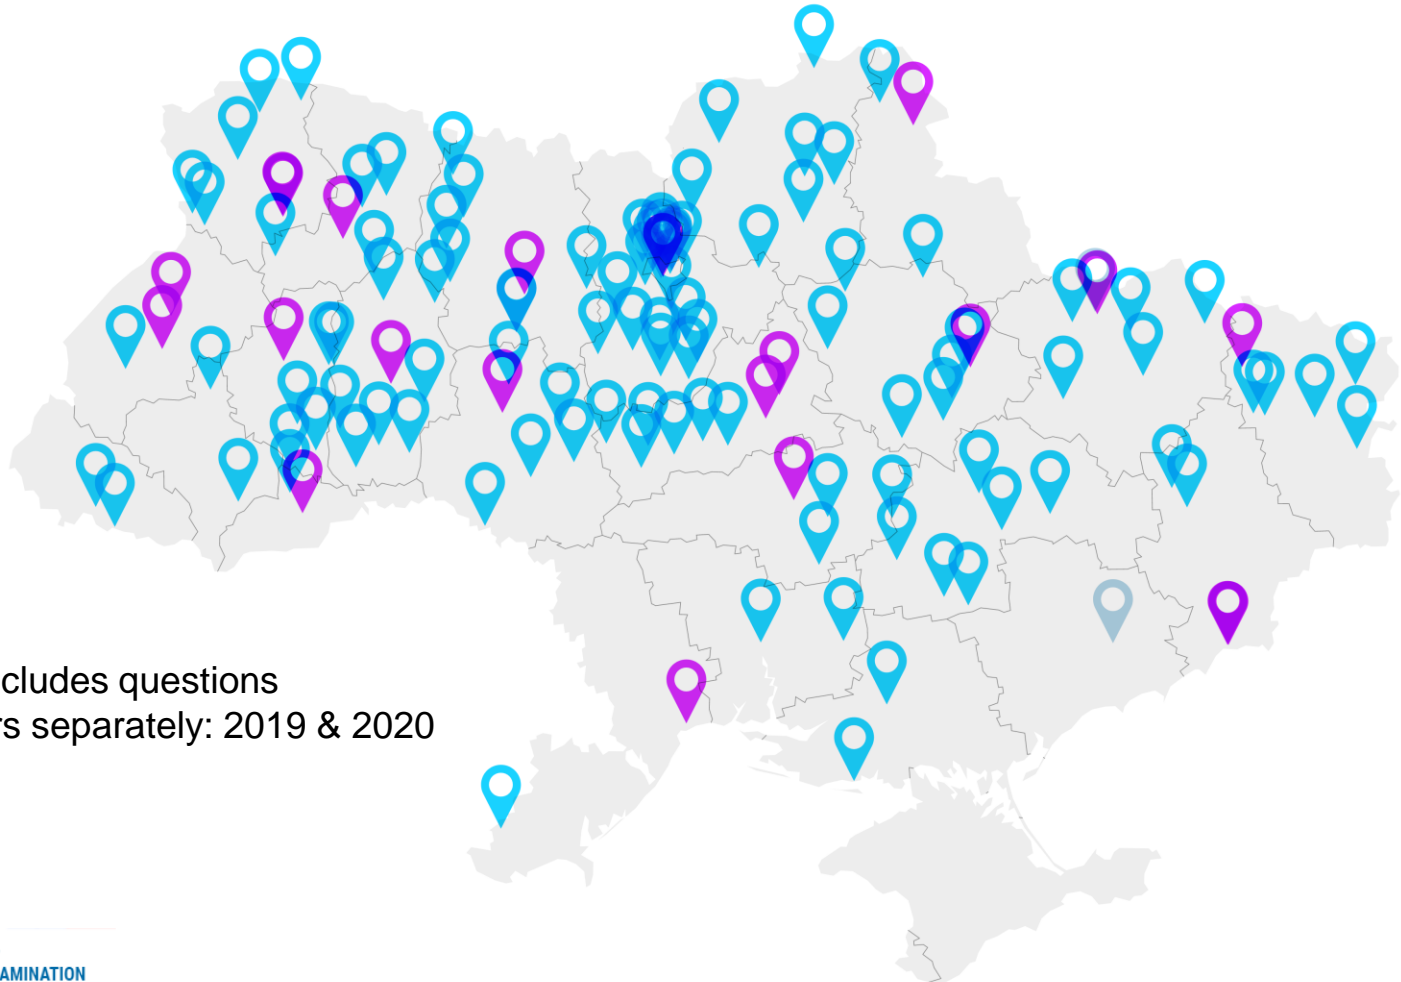

EFSQ survey

189 units within 129 facilities participated in EFSQ survey (in 25 regions of Ukraine).

In purple – 48 units within 21 specialized (in the mental health field) public facilities.

In blue – 139 units within 106 general public facilities.

Survey includes questions
for 2 years separately: 2019 & 2020

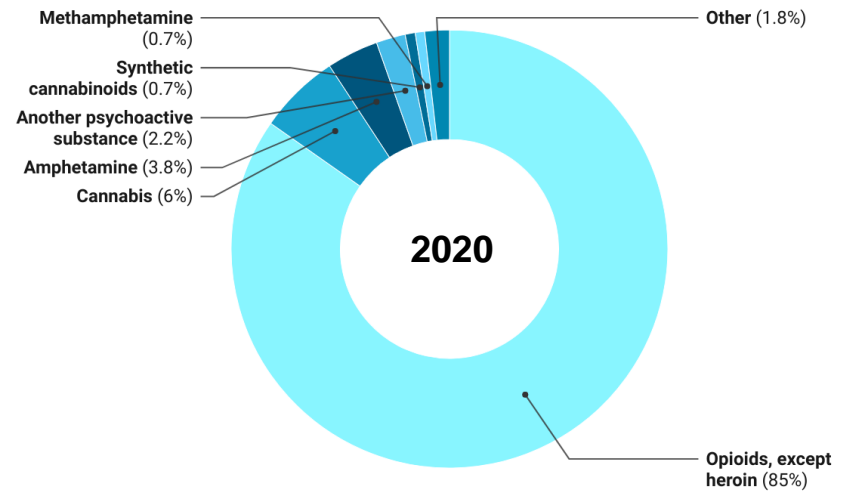

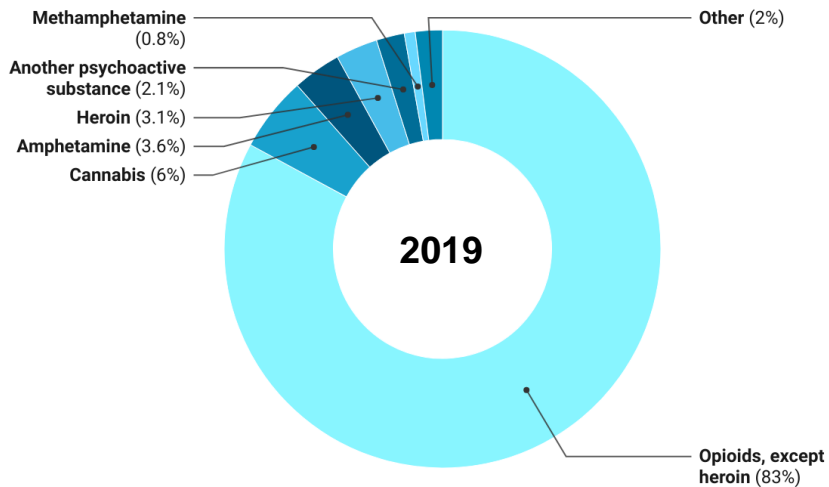

EFSQ survey

Proportion (%) of clients whose main reason for treatment was related to:

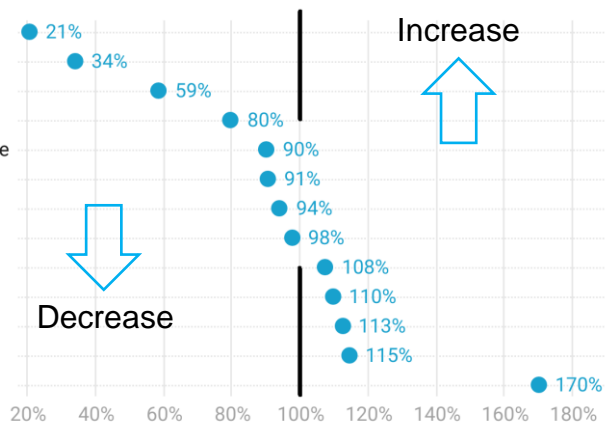

EFSQ survey

Proportion (%) of clients by the main substance (except alcohol):

- Heroin
- Unknown psychoactive substance
- Synthetic cathinones
- Cocaine
- Another new psychoactive substance
- Methamphetamine
- Volatile solvents
- Hypnotics and sedatives
- Opioids, except heroin
- Another psychoactive substance
- Amphetamine
- Cannabis
- Synthetic cannabinoids

Opioid agonist maintenance treatment in 2022

